The Lee Family Scholarship

- A full-tuition scholarship for the one year Johnson School dual degree-(A)MBA program, both Ithaca and Roosevelt Island campuses, thanks to the generosity of Charles R. Lee and the Lee Family Foundation.

- One or two scholarships are given each year to a PhD and/or MD student.

- Medical students take a one-year leave of absence joining the AMBA program, at the end of their 3rd or 4th year of medical school.
  - Please note that third year medical students must have completed their “Surgery and Medicine” clerkships before they begin the AMBA program.

- PhD students apply to the AMBA program during their final year of graduate work, entering the Johnson School in May, following the completion of the PhD (defending and submission of final thesis).
The Johnson application process:

- WCM/WCGS students apply directly to a Johnson School Branch
  - Each branch (Cornell-Ithaca and Cornell-Tech) has its own admissions process, requiring separate applications
